Practices Regarding Disclosure of Patient Health Information

Your health information will be routinely used for treatment, payment, and quality monitoring, and your consent, the opportunity to agree or object, is not required in these instances:

- Treatment – Information obtained by your practitioner at the Two Frogs Healing Center will be entered into your record and used to plan the course of treatment. Your health information may be shared with others involved in your care or providing consultation about your treatment. Your practitioner's own expectations and those of others involved in your care may also be recorded.
- Payment – Your record will be used to receive payment for services rendered by this practice. A bill may be sent to either you or a third-party payer with accompanying documentation that identifies you, your diagnosis, and / or practitioner's impressions, and procedures performed.
- Quality Monitoring – The staff in this office will use your health information to assess the care you received and compare your treatment outcomes to others. Your information may be reviewed for risk management or quality improvement purposes in our efforts to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the care and services we provide.

In addition, the following disclosures are required by law and do not require your consent:

- Food and Drug Administration (FDA) – This office is required by law to disclose health information to the FDA related to any adverse effects of food, supplements, products, and product defects for surveillance to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacements.
- Worker's Compensation – This office will release information to the extent authorized by law in matters of worker's compensation.
- Public Health – This office is required by law to disclose health information to public health and/ or legal authorities charged with tracking reports of birth and morbidity. This office is further required by law to report communicable disease, injury, or disability.
- Law Enforcement – (1) Your health information will be disclosed in response to a valid subpoena for law enforcement purposes, as required under state or federal law. (2) in the event that a staff member or business associate of this office believes in good faith that one or more patients, workers, or the general public are endangered due to suspected unlawful conduct of a practitioner or violations of professional or clinical standards, provisions of federal law permit the disclosure of your health information to appropriate health oversight agencies, public health authorities, or attorneys.

It is the Two Frogs Healing Center's practice to consider the following as routine uses and disclosures for which specific authorization will not be requested. You have the right to request restrictions on these uses. Otherwise, we will request your authorization whenever disclosure of personal health information is necessary to parties other than those referenced here.

- Business Associates – Some or all of your health information may be subject to disclosure through contracts for services to assist this office in providing health care. To protect your health information, we require these Business Associates to follow the same standards held by this office through terms detailed in a written agreement.
- Communications with Family – Using best judgment, a family member, close personal friend identified by you, a personal representative, or other persons responsible for your care may be notified or given information about your care to assist them in enhancing your well-being or to confirm your whereabouts.
- Marketing and Fundraising – This office may send you information about treatment alternatives and other health-related benefits that you may find useful. We may also contact you to request your charitable support in order to keep patient fees reasonable and providing for continuing practitioner training and research. Persons contacting you may be the Two Frogs Healing Center employees other than your practitioner who will know only that you have been a patient but have no access to your medical records.

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice, and the accompanying Practices Regarding Disclosure of Patient Health Information, describe how health information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you get access to your health information. Copies of this notice are given to all individuals receiving care. Please review this information carefully.

Understanding your health record: A record is made each time you visit this practice. Your symptoms, the practitioner's judgments, and a plan of treatment are recorded. This record serves as a basis for planning your care and treatment at future visits, and also serves as a means of communication among other health professionals who may contribute to your care. Understanding what information is retained in your record and how that information may be used will assist you to ensure it is accurate and make informed decisions about who, what, when, where, and why others may be allowed access to your health information.

Understanding your health information rights: Your health record is the physical property of your practitioner, but the content is about you, and therefore belongs to you. You have the right to review or obtain a paper copy of your health record, and to request that appropriate amendments be made to your health record. You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your information, to authorize disclosure of the record to others, and be given an account of those disclosures. Other than activity that has already occurred, you may revoke any further authorizations to use or disclose your health information.

Our responsibilities: This practice is required to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with this notice of our privacy practices. We're required to follow the terms of this notice and to notify you if we are unable to grant your request to disclose or restrict disclosure of your health information to others. The Two Frogs Healing Center of Frederick, Maryland reserves the right to change its practices and promises to make a good faith effort to notify you of any changes. Other than for the reasons described in this notice, the Two Frogs Healing Center and your practitioner agree not to use or disclose your health information without your authorization.

To receive additional information or report a problem: you may contact your practitioner. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you have the right to file a complaint with the owner of the Two Frogs Healing Center, and /or with the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services with no fear of retaliation by this office.

Voluntary: I hereby voluntarily consent to be treated with acupuncture, herbs, Craniosacral technique, and Sufi Healing.
I understand that treatment may involve the insertion of needles and/or the application of warmth or herbal formulas to my skin.
I understand that treatment may involve gentle hands-on contact with different areas of the body that relate to my conditions that I am coming for treatment.
I further understand that any questions I have regarding treatment and procedures will be answered to my satisfaction.

Possible Side Effects: I understand that the side effects from treatment, acupuncture, herbs, cupping, and vascular drainage may include temporary pain, slight bleeding, local bruising, or lightheadedness. According to the Law of Cure, it is possible that as healing occurs, certain symptoms may appear aggravated for a short time; this is considered a positive sign.

Medical Referral: I understand that if my condition worsens, a new ailment arises, or I do not improve within the time established by my acupuncturist at the beginning of treatment, I should consult a licensed physician.

Safety: I am aware that my practitioner uses only sterile, disposable needles or lancets which have never been used before and which are immediately disposed of in a Sharps container after use. My questions regarding safety have been answered and I know future questions would be welcome.

Returned Checks: I am aware that I will be charged an additional $29 processing fee for each returned check.

Cancellation Policy: I understand that I may change or cancel an appointment at any time. If I cancel an appointment less than 24 hours before the agreed upon time, I understand that I will be charged the treatment fee. When I want to change or cancel an appointment, I will do so by phone at (301)228.FROG (301.228.3764).
